

Sunpenny to Race in $50,000 Seattle Handicap

Likely Foes are WA 2yo filly Champion Chu and You and CA Stakes Winner City by the Bay

Sunpenny, is owned by a ZTR partnership group initiated in 2013 when Sunpenny was 2 years old. She raced 4 times in 2013 and made her 2014 debut last month at Emerald Downs.

Z Thoroughbred Racing's 3 year-old stakes-placed winning filly Sunpenny, by Good Reward out of the stakes winning mare Cascade Corona, has been nominated to the first stakes of the Emerald Down's season for 3 year-old fillies, the $50,000 Seattle Handicap run at 6 1/2 furlongs on the dirt on June 1st.

Weights have been assigned with the highweight of 120 lbs. being levied upon Washington State 2 year-old filly Champion Chu and You to whom Sunpenny finished 2nd in the $50,000 state-bred restricted Northwest invader City by the Bay is schedule to make her 2014 debut in this race after winning the $100,000 Barretts Debutante at Fairplex by over 8 lengths in September. The Debutante is for fillies that have been through the Barrett's sales ring. City by the Bay has been assigned the 2nd highweight at 119 lbs. and Sunpenny has been assigned 116. Also nominated are two time winner Lotta Attitude, first out one-start winner Just a Love, and stakes-placed Belladiva.

In Sunpenny's last race, her debut of 2014, she finished 3rd behind Lotta Attitude and Belladiva for trainer Frank Lucarelli after being pinched at the start and rearing a few steps out of the gate. She has not been out of the money in five career starts having a record of 5-1-3-1 and earnings of over $30,000.

Sunpenny was sired by the KY based stallion Good Reward, a full bro to Pure Prize, and bred by Blue Ribbon Farms in Buckley, WA. She is out of a multiple stakes winner Cascade Corona by Pine Sunpenny will be ridden in the Seattle Handicap by jockey David Lopez who is back at Emerald Downs after a stint racing in Peru in South America.

Only the two highweight horses have previously raced at the Seattle Handicap's distance of 6 1/2 furlongs and none of the horses nominated have yet to run a race requiring two turns.

The remaining stakes races at Emerald Downs for 3 year-old fillies will be at a mile or greater distances at which Sunpenny is expected to excel given her tactical speed and ability to rate.

Soul Intent Wins at Golden Gate Fields!

Soul Intent, the 4 year-old colt owned by the ZTR partnership group formed in 2012, won at Golden Gate Fields on March 27th on the Tapeta for trainer Frank Lucarelli.

Soul Intent won on the Tapeta track at 6 furlongs at Golden Gate Fields. He has been shipped to Emerald Downs to compete this Soul Intent faced a prohibitive favorite in Gold Tie Please, who went off at 1/5 odds. Soul Intent started the race with his best jump from the gate to date. After taking the measure of the field, he dropped back to last place and waited to make his move.

Gold Tie Please, Waafir, and Cat's Ego set themselves apart from the field at the first turn, and Soul Intent started his move, with Sargent Stadanko following, overtaking the field at the top of the stretch, and powering through to leave them behind, winning his first race by a length and a half to Sargent Stadenko and another two lengths to a tiring Gold Tie Please and the rest of the field.

He has been vanned to Emerald Downs where he will face winners this summer on the dirt track at distances of 6 or 6 1/2 furlongs and is being pointed to a non-winners of two claiming race at the oval on June 7th.

Soul Intent is by Perfect Soul (IRE) and is out of the Danehill mare Danish Wildcat, herself a daughter of Breeders Cup Distaff winning millionaire Hollywood Wildcat.
